Regular Directors of the American Academy of Actuaries Begin Terms

WASHINGTON – The American Academy of Actuaries announced the beginning of the terms of the three regular director members elected by its members in online balloting. Rich Daillak, Joeff Williams, and Mike Angelina were elected as regular directors to serve three-year terms on the professional association's board of directors.

Daillak is vice president and actuary of Swiss Re America Holding Corporation. He has 32 years of experience as an actuary. Prior to joining Swiss Re in 2005, he was vice president and actuary at MetLife, where he worked for nearly 21 years, and for two years he was a consulting actuary with The Wyatt Company. His experience has been diverse, first in group insurance, then individual insurance financial management, individual life reinsurance, risk management, and most recently as a senior regulatory officer addressing issues affecting both life & health and property & casualty reinsurance, including group supervision, Own Risk and Solvency Assessment, and international solvency standards.

Williams has been a consulting actuary for Actuarial Management Resources Inc. in Winston-Salem, N.C., for the past 25 years. Prior to that, he worked at Integon Insurance Company in the product development area. His consulting work focuses on both the life and health insurance area. He has served on numerous Academy committees, including serving as chairperson of the Life and Health Qualifications Seminar and vice chairperson of the Council on Professionalism.

Angelina currently serves as the executive director of the Academy of Risk Management and Insurance within the Erivan K. Haub School of Business of Saint Joseph's University, where he leads the Risk Management and Insurance undergraduate program. He is an insurance professional with over 25 years of practicing experience. He is a former chief risk officer, and insurance professional with experience in consulting, executive, and director roles. Throughout his insurance career, he has
